Evening this week, there's knock at my front door. Ken was there to show a baby he had found and made with. And the very next evening on route to work at 5 A. M. stopped my car to let by a squirrell taking possession of every right of way. I have a bird's nest at my home, I hope one will molest. A friend came to show me an example of the cutting of some beavers had near his home. I think I did love the animals God made and give them a break. But I have no friendship for snakes, ticks and roaches. But, in spite of God's creations, we are sure have to learn to "get along."

I am happy to congratulate Grant Gtfi Shop on their upcoming Appomattox is a town!

Ne t Tuesday Primary Election For Virginia State Officials

Next Tuesday the Democrats of Virginia will go to the polls and nominate candidates for Governor, Lieut. Governor, and Attorney-General.

Polls will operate on Eastern Standard Time, 6 A. M. to 7 P. M.

The statewide vote is expected to be well under 400,000.

Albertis S. Harrison, incumbent Attorney-General, and A. E. S. Stephens, incumbent Lieut. Gov., are opposing candidates for nomination for Governor. local opinion appears to favor Mr. Harrison as the favorite in this county. No formal appearance of either candidate has been made in this county. However, local political leaders are supporting Mr. Harrison, Statewide, the election primary may be close, but in Appomattox, there is reason to believe that Mr. Harrison will run up a commanding majority.

Mr. Harrison has the strong endorsement of the political leaders in this section. Hailing from Brunswick County, he is a former county attorney, state senator and now the Attorney-General.

CLASS REUNION PLANNED

To all members of the 1952 graduating class of Appomattox High School.
There will be a planning meeting to determine the place, date, and types of class reunion to be held this summer. This meeting will be held on July 8, 1961, at Maude's Restaurant, at 8:00 P. M. (Editor's note: We regret that in last week's issue, the above item was listed as the "Class of 1953.")

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

Monday, ... will meet ... Glenn Martin ... Monday, ... will hold annual family pot ... 6:30 P. M. at the home of Miss Rosa Mae Woolridge. Members and families invited.

Thursday, July 12 Stonewall Club will meet at 2 P. M. with Mrs. W. A. Owen.

A foolish idea a day, keeps the mind working, at least.

A half-truth is often far more dangerous than no truth.

It will be operated by Mrs. A. R. Southall. The Appomattox Canning Plant on Highway 460 across from the Appomattox High School will be operated by Mrs. Emmy Lemon. The Appomattox Cannery will operate five days a week Monday through Friday.

Considerable work has been done in preparing to open the canneries this year. Much painting and some rearranging of inside equipment should make the operation more efficient this year. Both local canneries ranked high in the state in the amount of food processed during the 1960 canning season. Appomattox Cannery was sixth highest of 94 canneries in the state. Over 55,000 cans of food were processed there last year. The Pamplin cannery was 31st among the state canneries with over 23,000 cans being put up there.

THOMAS COLEMAN HARVEY

A widespread cloud of sorrow, and gloom descended over the town of Appomattox and indeed over the entire county when it was learned that Thomas Coleman Harvey, Jr., had met an untimely death in a tragic accident near Vern on last Wednesday afternoon.

Born March 11, 1926, in Winchuch, Ontario, Canada, he came with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Coleman Harvey, Sr., to this county where he spent his whole life. As a youth, he was graduated from Appomattox High School in 1943, and in October of that same year enlisted in the U. S. Air Force, where he served until June, 1946. In August, 1947, he was married to Miss Peggy Lee Moses, of Appomattox, who survives him, along with three sons and a daughter. He is also survived by his parents, one brother, Charles A. Harvey, of Danville, and two sisters, Mrs. Richard W. Carson, of Concord and Miss Harriette Harvey, of Appomattox.

At the conclusion of his term of service with the Air Force, he became engaged in farming, and was quite a successful farmer. Through the years Mr. Harvey had also taken an outstanding part in the activities of the American Legion. He had discharged all his duties in a creditable manner, and had just recently received a signal honor, by being made a member of the Legion Honor Guard. Only a few days prior to his death, this young man had served as Commander of the local Legion Chapter, American Legion Post No. 104.

A funeral service was held Friday afternoon at New Hope Baptist Church near Vera, followed by a military service at the Harvey family cemetery. The service was conducted by Dr. Carl A. Collins, of Roanoke, a former Air Force Chaplain and former pastor in this county, assisted by Rev. John P. Leitner, of Hebron, and Rev. Marvin A. Jacobs, pastor of the New Hope Church. A detachment of soldiers from Fort Lee also attended, and participated in the graveside rites.

The exquisite floral tributes were numerous and in their own silent and beautiful way expressed the sympathy of grieving friends and relatives. Conspicuous among them was a wreath of poppies, suggestive of World War II. The practice of sending a poppy wreath upon the death of a veteran had been recently established through Mr. Harvey' efforts and, ironically, his grave was the first one upon which such a wreath had been placed.

If the United States wants to lose its place "in the sun," all that it has to do is to be afraid of its responsibility in the present era of world affairs.

Peace would automatically descend upon the earth if every individual and every nation would stop trying to secure unearned advantages.

Adults whose memories go back far enough to remember the pranks of their own youth, lose little sleep over our modern boys and girls.

Free advice, regardless of its origin, is almost worthless.

New Principal Named at A. H. S.

. . Prin. Frank O. Chuchek

Appomattox High School will have a new principal with the opening of the next school season.

It was announced this week that Mr. Frank C. Chuchek has accepted the A. H. S. principalship.

He is an educator of wide experience and comes here with highest recommendations. He graduated from the Johnstown, Pa., High School in 1938. He received his B. S. degree in secondary education from the Shippensburg State College in Pa., and Master's degree in Education from the University of Pittsburgh. He attended Summer School at Duke University and the University of Virginia.

He was instructor in science, math and band at the Chase City, Va., High School 1940-43, and Principal of Chase City, Va., Schools, 1943-1955, and Principal of the Riverstone High School, at Skipwith, Va., 1955-56. For the past two years he has been Principal of the Sayre Area Joint High School, Sayre, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Chuchek have three children, ages 17, 12 and 12.

Mr. Chuchek succeeds Mr. Grantland Rush, who is moving to the Brookville School.

BOYS' FORESTRY CAMP AT HOLLIDAY LAKE

The sixteenth annual Boys' Forestry Camp was held during the week of June 26 through July1. State Forester George W. Dean stated that 92 boys attended camp this year and will carry back to their community a wealth of knowledge learned from the forestry courses taught at camp.

The camp is held each year at Holiday Lake located on the Buckingham Appomattox State Forest. One hundred scholarships were awarded to Virginia boys between the ages of 14-18 years judged the most deserving from the standpoint of activity and interest shown in sound forest conservation methods. At the end of the camp week the boys were carefully tested on the subjects taught during the camp period. The instructors and counsellors selected as best campers three outstanding boys who displayed the most leadership, initiative, interest and who also made good grades on their test papers.

Trained professional foresters from the pulp and paper industry and the Virginia Division of Forestry and a wildlife technician from the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries handled the instruction at camp. Courses taught included forest fire control, crusiaing, marking and management and timber harvesting processing.

Camp counsellors were vocational agriculture instructors provided through the State Department of Education.

Holiday Lake Camp is financed by Virginia pulpwood using industries sponsored by the Southern Pulpwood Conservation Association and managed by the Virginia Division of Forestry. Industries supporting this year's camp include: Chesapeake Corporation of Virginia, Continental Can Company Inc. The Glatfelter Pulp Wood Company, The Mead Corporation Owens-Illinois Union Bag-Camp Papec, Corporation, West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company.

ELECTED TO CLUB OFFICE

Miss Patricia Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Thomas, Spout Spring, Va., was elected Vice-president of the Virginia Association, Future Homemakers of America at the State Convention held at Hotel Roanoke, Roanoke, June 19-22.

Patricia, with her adviser, Mrs. Madeline Thomas, left July 2 to attend the National Convention being held at Chase Park Plaza Hotel, St. Louis, Missouri. She will return July 8.

The theme of the National Convention is "Youth - Measure Your Values." Attention will be focused on the meaning of values, where we get our values and how they influence our decisions.

Dr. and Mrs. Russell C. Smart, Department of Child Development and Family Relations, College of Home Economics, University of Rhode Island, will be moderators on a panel discussion, "Where and How we get our Values,"

Dr. Walter Kerr, Marven Methodist Church, Tyler, Texas. will talk on "Youth in Today's World."

The Future Homemakers Association of which Patricia is a member, is a national organization of students from junior and senior high schools in the United States, including Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands. The membership of this organization is 482,367. The National Adviser is Miss Lois Oliver, formerly Area Supervisor for Virginia.
